

JOIN US!

THE MEANING OF THE
FOURTH OF JULY
FOR THE NEGRO

A COMMUNAL READING

OF A LECTURE BY

FREDERICK DOUGLASS,

WHEN: SATURDAY, JUNE 28TH, 1:00PM

AMHERST TOWN COMMON

WHERE: RAIN -GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH
14 BOLTWOOD AVE

“To work for ‘a more perfect union’ we need to start to understand complexities we’ve never really worked through.”

In his fiery July 5, 1852 speech, the great abolitionist orator Frederick Douglass took exception to being asked to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence ...

Find out more about the “Reading Frederick Douglass” statewide collaboration at www.masshumanities.org

Sponsors: AFSC, Amherst Human Rights Commission, Amherst NAACP, David Ruggles Center, Karuna Center for Peacebuilding, Leverett Peace Commission, Mass Humanities, Mass Slavery Apology Project, NE Peace Pagoda, Peacenet, Project Unspeakable, Sankofa Foundation of the Pioneer Valley, Sojourner Truth